Cookie Policy: detailed cookie information for the website www.securesi.it

This information notice explains what cookies are and illustrates the various types of cookies present on the website www.securesi.it (hereinafter, the "Site").

What is a cookie?

Cookies are short text files that are downloaded to the User's device when visiting a website. At each subsequent visit, cookies are sent back to the website that originated them (first-party cookies) or to another site that recognizes them (third-party cookies). Cookies are useful because they allow a website to recognize the user's device. They have different purposes such as, for example, allowing efficient navigation between pages, remembering favorite sites and, in general, improving the browsing experience. They also contribute to ensuring that online advertising content displayed is more targeted to the user and their interests. Depending on the function and purpose of use, cookies can be divided into technical cookies, profiling cookies, and third-party cookies.

What are cookies used for?

Cookies are used for different purposes: execution of computer authentications, monitoring of sessions, storage of information on specific configurations regarding users accessing the server, storage of preferences, etc.

Technical cookies

Technical cookies are those whose use does not require the user's consent. Among these technical cookies, we highlight essential cookies, also called "strictly necessary", which enable functions without which it would not be possible to fully use the Site. They are saved on the user's computer only during the current browser session. These cookies also facilitate the transition from http to https when changing pages, so that the security of transmitted data is always guaranteed. A cookie of this type is also used to store the user's decision regarding the use of cookies on our website. Essential cookies cannot be disabled using the Site's functions. Within the scope of technical cookies are also those used to statistically analyze accesses or visits to the site, also called analytics, which exclusively pursue statistical purposes (but not marketing or profiling) and collect information in aggregate form without the possibility of tracing the identification of the individual user. These cookies can be deactivated and/or deleted through the browser settings.

In detail, the cookies present on the Site are the following:

Cookie Name	Purpose	Type of Cookie	Duration	Source / Ownership	Registered Info / Access

How to express preferences regarding the use of cookies

With reference to browsing or session cookies and functionality cookies, the user can block or delete them (in whole or in part) through the specific functions of their navigation program (so-called browser); however, in the event that all or some of the cookies are disabled, it is possible that the Site may become unavailable or that some services or certain functions of the site are not available or do not work correctly and/or the user may be forced to modify or manually enter some information or preferences each time they visit the site. The methods for disabling cookies through the browser are described below:

- On all browsers it is possible to set the level of use of any cookies, via the menu item ("Settings -> Privacy" on Chrome, "Internet Options -> Privacy" on Internet Explorer, "Options -> Privacy" on Mozilla). ATTENTION: by disabling all cookies, the site may become unavailable or some services or certain functions of the site may not be available or not function correctly, and the user may be forced to modify or manually enter some information or preferences each time they visit the Site. The choices made by the user with reference to the Site's cookies will in turn be recorded in a specific cookie, having the characteristics reported in the appropriate cookie table. This cookie could, however, in some circumstances not function correctly: in such cases, it is recommended that the user delete unwanted cookies and inhibit their use also through the functionalities of their navigation browser. The user's preferences regarding cookies will have to be reset if different devices or browsers are used to access the site.

Browsing or session cookies: strictly necessary for the functioning of the site or to allow the user to make use of the contents and services requested by them. These cookies can be disabled only through the use of the browser, as indicated above.

Analytics cookies: allow understanding how the site is used by users. With these cookies, no information on the user's identity is collected, nor any personal data. The information is processed in aggregate and anonymous form. These cookies can be disabled via the appropriate buttons inserted on this page.

Profiling cookies: allow tracing a profile of the user, in order to direct advertising messages in line with the preferences manifested during browsing. The data subject to profiling and entered by the user within the Portal will be stored only and exclusively upon the explicit provision of consent.

Third-party cookies: regarding third-party cookies, these are cookies from sites or web servers other than the Site of Securesì SRL, used for purposes typical of said third parties. Securesì SRL is not able to exercise specific control over these subjects and their cookies. To obtain information on these cookies and their characteristics and methods of operation and to provide the relative specific consent, it is necessary to use the links present in the cookie table reported above or turn directly to said third parties. The use of third-party cookies can normally be inhibited by the user also through the appropriate option present in their navigation program (browser): in this regard, see the indications reported above.

The modification or confirmation of preferences expressed regarding the use of the Site's cookies can take place at any time by the user, accessing this page through the appropriate link present on each page of the site. The data collected by the cookies of Securesì SRL are managed by Securesì SRL for a maximum duration of 2 years, with the purpose of providing you with a browsing experience that is as functional and facilitated as possible, so as to guarantee the use in a simple and easy manner of all the functionalities of the Site (e.g., to avoid having to receive or enter the same information at each visit or to make the process of searching for elements within the Site easier).

The legal basis of the processing is given by the consent expressed by the Controller. The data collected, for the retention time, are available to the data subjects in intelligible form, so it will be possible to ask to know their origin, the purpose and the methods on which the processing is based, to obtain access to the same, updating, rectification, integration, erasure, transformation into anonymous form, restriction of processing, to arrange for the blocking of data processed in violation of law and to obtain a copy of them in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format or to transmit such data to another data controller without impediments. In case of explicit consent, data subjects may revoke at any time the consent expressed for the processing of their personal data for one or more specific purposes (without however affecting the lawfulness of the processing not based on consent or based on consent given before the revocation) and lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority (Garante per la Privacy).

Data subjects may exercise these rights against the Data Controller, Securesì SRL (P.IVA 03006040301), legal representative Sisto Girardi, with registered office at Via Carducci 44, Udine, who can be contacted by post at the aforementioned address, or via e-mail at the address: securesi@legalmail.it.
